

Welcome to Quest!

Quest is a Girl Guides of Nova Scotia Provincial Camp for Pathfinders, Rangers, Bridging Members and Guiders from across Nova Scotia. Quest normally has between 250 and 300 participants. Pathfinders will camp with their Pathfinder Unit but will spend 12 hours (10am to 10pm) on Saturday taking part in a competition, where they work in teams to complete challenges (called Projects). Rangers, Bridging Members and Guiders organize and run the Projects. It is a fun and challenging camp!

Drop Off Process

If you have attended Quest in the past, you'll know that arrival can be congested! We will be sending out more details on the drop-off process closer to Quest, as we are at a new location this year and need to sort out some of the details. Your Unit Guider will provide you with updated information.

- Please be patient with us! Delays will happen but we are doing our best.
- Please arrive at the scheduled time – not before! Your Pathfinder/Ranger Unit Guider will provide you with a specific drop-off time on Friday evening. If a Pathfinder/Ranger arrives before their Unit Guider, parents will need to wait until the Unit Guider arrives.
- Drive slowly and carefully, there are many cars and people moving around the site.
- When you arrive at the tenting site, pull completely off the road (all four tires on the grass, please).
- Please be very quick in dropping off, so we can keep the traffic flowing to get everyone checked in.

Photography

Photographs and/or videos may be taken at Quest. As you can appreciate with an event of this size, Girl Guides of Canada and/or the Quest organizing team cannot assume responsibility for photos/videos taken during the event for non-official purposes. It is best that all participants who do not wish to have their image recorded take responsibility for managing this for themselves. Participants who do not have a “Yes” for their image release will have this identified on their nametag.
